

REGALIA TEXTURED GLASS

PRODUCT INFORMATION

Part of our Classic Collection Organic Series, Regalia Textured Glass is a remixed version of our Mesh textured glass. Using strips of organic pleated lace, different sized pockets and folds are created within the mold that mirror the shape of a curtain. The soothing pattern brings calmness to any environment with a simplistic, yet distinctly unique design. The rippled glass texture provides sufficient opacity while still allowing ample light transmission. Regalia Textured Glass is perfect for designers seeking out a natural product with optimal functionality. Regalia decorative glass is available in safety tempered or safety laminated panels, and in various thicknesses of clear or low iron glass.

Applications: Balustrade, Cladding, Doors, Feature Walls, Lighting, Partitions
